DIARY NOTES

DD/S

JM

25 February 1963

1. At the Executive Committee Meeting this morning it was announced that General Krulak had been appointed the Chairman of a Subcommittee under the Cottrel group to concentrate on subversion in Latin America. (J. C. King is the CIA representative on the Subcommittee.)

2. Mr. Kirkpatrick telephoned to say that it had been decided that OSI would be transferred to the DD/R. Kirk is to meet with Ray Cline and explain this to him, after which they will want to get out a notice to this effect.

3. I have approved of Emmett Echols going on leave for one week beginning 1 March. (He understands that, should any hearings or discussions come up regarding early retirement legislation, he will have to cancel his leave.)

4. At [REDACTED] request I spoke to John Tietjen about making arrangements to give shots to certain dependents of employees under [REDACTED] somewhere other than at our headquarters building. As Tom explained it, this group of dependents is made up of small children old enough to be observant but not old enough to be witting. There apparently have been instances in which small children of an individual under [REDACTED] have told their friends or friends of their father that they came out to a big, white building way out in the country to see the doctor, get their shots, etc. This change should present no great problem, and I have asked Dr. Tietjen to get in touch with Tom and work out the necessary details to overcome this problem.

5. Dick Helms telephoned to say that he had had several complaints from young ladies in the Clandestine Services about the West parking lot not being lighted. I explained to Dick that I was reluctant to go to the expense of lighting this in the same way that the North and South parking lots are lighted, but I would arrange to have a security patrol in the West parking lot from dark until the cars are cleared out. (I have laid this on with Shef Edwards and have also asked him to mention it at the next Senior Staff Meeting.)

6. Mr. Kirkpatrick, [REDACTED] Emmett Echols, and I lunched with the Civil Service Commissioners (John Macy, Fred Lawton, and Bob Hampton plus Warren Irons, the Executive Director). They stayed until about 3:00 p.m. for a briefing on the Agency and its personnel management system, and toured the building briefly.

7. I talked to General Carter over the weekend about space. He did not believe that we should move Task Force W out of building. As between the Office of Training and elements of the DD/R, I think he might have been persuaded that DD/R could move with less damage to the Agency's over-all efficiency. However, he recognized that this might cause real trouble--when you twist the tail of a scientist you sometimes set off a whole string of unanticipated events. He said that he didn't have time to go into it in great detail and deferred to Mr. Kirkpatrick to make the decision. I talked with Kirk about this today. He directed that, given the alternative of approximately 20,000 square feet to be given up by either OTR or DD/R, we should plan to move OTR. (I have advised [REDACTED] of this decision and have written a brief memorandum to the Director of Logistics directing that he plan accordingly.)
